

Virtual FUN-draiser Ideas

Start by setting up a fundraising page on cmnhershey.org/chw20. Then pick your fundraiser, set a goal and watch the donations roll in!

- Virtual Meeting Bingo
 - Invite your team to donate to Children's Hospitals Week at Penn State Children's Hospital to play! Send them the PDF and enjoy your conference calls and video chats even more while working remotely.

- Boss for the day - Video Conference Edition
 - The top fundraiser earns "boss for the day" duties during your next video conference. They get to select the dress code for your team during the next video conference and can have the boss wear their funniest outfit. (Think best Halloween costume, funny hat or favorite Pjs).

- LinkedIn/Social Media Yearbook Challenge
 - Set a fundraising goal for your team during Children's Hospital Week.
 - The lowest fundraiser on your team has to change their LinkedIn or other social media profile picture to an old picture for the week. Think yearbook, prom or 3rd grade picture.

- Lunch Delivered
 - Set a fundraising goal for your team during Children's Hospital Week.
 - The highest fundraiser gets lunch delivered to their remote office.

- Virtual Fitness Challenge
 - Send your fundraising page link to family and friends with an invite to take part in a virtual fitness challenge.
 - Invite employees to video themselves doing push-ups, wall sits or sits ups and tag their friends and family on social media.
 - Friends can donate to Children's Hospitals Week to get out of participating.

- Play Games | Heal Kids
 - Have a virtual game night and invite employees, family, and friends to participate via video chat or live stream.
 - Everyone who participates donates to your Children's Hospitals Week Page
 - These can be any kind of games (Board games, video games, card games etc.)
 - Games that require no supplies: Charades, Pictionary

- Virtual Happy Hour
 - Host a virtual Happy Hour via video conference for your team and have them donate to participate.
