TEAM CAPTAIN TOOLKIT

TEAMING UP IN A BIG WAY with

Mental Health for All is a bold goal and it takes a bold leader to help us reach it. Thank you for accepting the challenge. There is a “me” in team and it’s the secret to making your team a winner. When each teammate feels like an integral part of your team, thanks to your leadership, they’re far more likely to meet and exceed your common goals.

Team Captains lead the way. They recruit team members for NAMI Walks Your Way, encouraging them to participate and raise funds for NAMI’s mission of Mental Health for All.

Team Captains share their story. By doing so, they encourage their team members to do the same—reduce the stigma of mental illness.

Team Captains fundraise like stars. The leaders of our teams, like you, raise 5 times more on the average than all other participants.

All funds raised support NAMI’s free, top-rated programs and services for our communities.

Email #2: Use your personal story to make an impact

Subject... Walk Your Way with Me

Dear Friends,

My family, like many others, has been challenged by mental illness. (Briefly describe your story)

Over the years, NAMI has been a source of support, education, and inspiration for us. Since the pandemic began, the need for mental health services, including NAMI's work in the community, has grown exponentially.

Now more than ever, NAMI needs our help to expand their free top-rated programs, develop new resources, and build NAMI's presence across our region. We want to let people know they are not alone!

I am volunteering as team captain in the 2021 NAMIWalks Your Way to raise awareness for people who have seen mental illness impact their lives. In uncertain times like these, we need NAMI now more than ever.

I am asking you to join and/or support our team with a contribution. On my fundraising page, you can make a secure, online donation or join me in supporting NAMI by creating a fundraising page of your own.

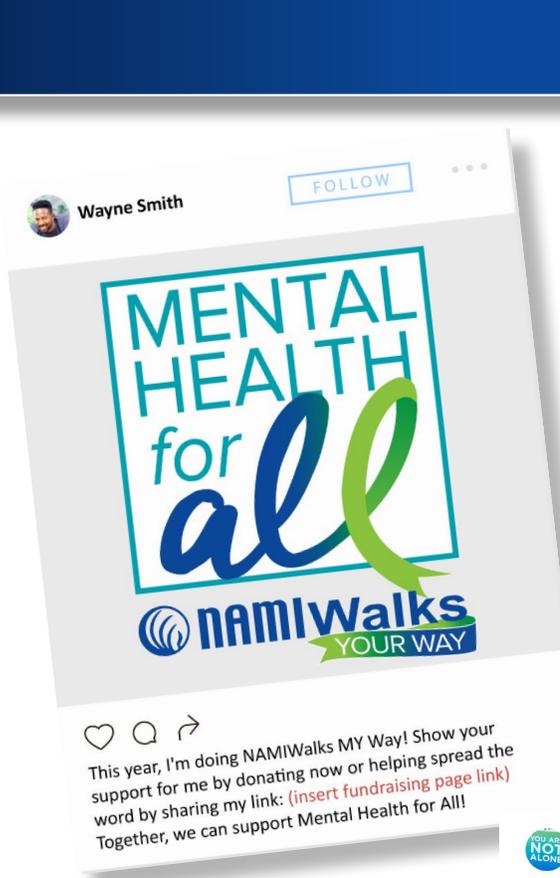

Either way, your support means a lot. You can donate now at: (Insert your fundraising page link)

Thanks and be well,
(YOUR NAME)
